About the Speaker:

Nicole Dupre

Founder & Creative Director

- “This is personal to me. As I share my story I hope I can help others overcome the fear and shame of being impacted by opioids.”
- Nicole is a community leader with a trusted voice. She has served the people of Central Florida in many capacities. As the founder of Opera del Sol, Nicole’s work brings beauty through art. As one of the founders of the Milk District Neighborhood Association, she works for the economic and cultural thriving of the district. And as a board member for several educational initiatives, Nicole helps ensure students find success through mentoring. And now, through Project Opioid, Nicole is mobilizing community leaders toward solutions to the most drastic health crisis of our time.
- “I know what it’s like to fight this battle,” she says as she reflects upon her former husband’s battle with opioid addiction. “He hurt his back and had a doctor who over prescribed oxycontin. That led to other addiction issues that ultimately took his life. Now, I’m ready to help others who are hurting.”
